In this fun, hands-on workshop for Middletown High School students, Manual Cinema performers share the techniques they use to create “live cinema” shows, from story idea to full production. Participants will have an opportunity to work directly at the screens (in silhouette) and with overhead projectors and puppets to create their own narrative pieces. The workshop finishes with sharing your brand-new, original story.

All workshop participants will receive a FREE ticket to Manual Cinema’s performance of Ada/Ava on Friday February 23, 2018 at 8pm in Wesleyan’s CFA Theater. Additional tickets will be available for purchase at the discounted rate of $14 for adults and $6 for youth.
